

Feet are beginning to prove that the most dangerous legacy a man can leave behind him is a handsome young widow worth $50,000 of insurance.

Secretary Endicott has ordered the army officers who have been loafing about Washington, and fooling with society women, to return to duty, and of course they are highly incensed at the audacity of the secretary of war.

The Iowa democratic state convention will meet next Wednesday at Cedar Rapids. The state ticket to be nominated will include a governor, lieutenant governor and school superintendent. The republican state convention will meet August 20. The election will take place November 3.

The sugar and molasses consumed in the United States cost $108,884,700 annually. Of this we produce $19,838,805 worth of cane sugar, $4,410,612 worth of maple, $9,086,885 worth of sorghum, $102,626 worth of beet sugar, and $9,000,000 worth of glucose, or a total of $43,037,408, leaving $65,847,292 as the cost of the imported article consumed in the country.

It is reported from Washington that the sales of Miss Cleveland's book are reported to be falling off at a most extraordinary rate, and it is doubtful if the fair authors will net $5,000 from her enterprise. Her relation to the president created some curiosity to see the book, but when the people saw that it was an ordinary book, with but few interesting pages, the public didn't want it, and couldn't afford to buy it simply because the author was a sister to the president.

They have a queer way of doing things in England. For going on a ridiculous expedition up the Nile, getting some sand in his well eyes and not accomplishing what he went for, not beating the Mahdi and getting back to England minus three or four of the best officers in the English army, keeping himself all the time out of harm's way, General Lord Wolsey has been made a viscount, and is praised by the tory government as if he had swept the Sudan of Arab rebels and brought Gordon home alive. In England it does not make any difference whether you fail or succeed so long as you have a good title.

Captain Couch, of Oklahoma fame, claims to have discovered in the action of the present administration a determination to recognize the claims of the boomers to come and advise his followers to go home and wait the moving of the administration waters. If Captain Couch has discovered anything of the kind he must be possessed of sharper eyes than anybody else. It is probable that he has no hopes at all of favorable action on the part of the administration, and simply desires to get rid of his devoted followers in the easiest way possible. In that case the story that the administration is only waiting for time to open up the Oklahoma paradise to its eager claimants will serve as well as any other fiction. If his followers are wise, however, they will look for land and homes somewhere else.

Some papers, in giving the record of General Grant's life, credit him with directing General Sherman's march to the sea. The fact is, Grant had no more to do with the march to the sea than Tom Ochiltree. Grant never directed it, neither did he suggest it. His idea was for Sherman to quit Atlanta in November, 1864, and take after Hood, who, our readers will remember, was then threatening Middle Tennessee, and destroy his army. Sherman insisted that he could wipe Hood out and march to the sea at the same time, and it was not until several telegrams had passed between Grant and Sherman on the subject that the former acquiesced in the proposed march to the sea. This march was first proposed by Sherman, and Grant never claimed any credit for that historic movement. Those who are skeptical on this point should read Grant's telegrams to Sherman, dated November 1, and 6, 1864, and President Lincoln's letter of December 18, 1864. This march should be said of the march to the sea, in justice to General Grant who never in his life time claimed any credit for the march.

The present administration is being sorely hampered by the petitions it receives for the appointment of certain men to local office. As a rule, petitions are worthless. Here lately, a Texas lawyer has furnished a new version of the old story of the man who offered to get a respectable signed petition to hang the judge on the bench. "The Texas man so-ported instead of the judge on the bench one of the best known and highly respected citizens in the town, and produced in open court a petition signed by all the county officers and fifty of the business men of the town, including the brother in law and father-in-law of the victim, asking the court to hang him. The appointment of a postmaster in Maine on the strength of the signatures of the chairman of the democratic state committee and one hundred and thirteen leading citizens of the town, irrespective of party, asking for his appointment, when, in point of fact, the applicant was in jail for stealing postage stamps while acting as deputy postmaster, furnishes another annoying instance of the carelessness and recklessness with which the people lend their signatures to any and all kinds of petitions.

ANSWER TO MUGWUMP.
To the Editor:
I notice a very remarkable letter in issue of 13th signed "Mugwump," that causes a broad grin (its ear marks give it away). The source from which it comes, the sage conclusions arrived at, the self-commendable manner of giving advice to the republicans party prompts me to say that were the writer as dead physically as he is politically, the language of Job to his three friends would be applicable. DON'T GET EXCITED,

BUT THIS IS CHOLERA YEAR IN EUROPE.

And the Dreaded Scurge May Cross the Atlantic—A Suspicious Case at Philadelphia—The Toledo Scare—Paris Taking Precautions.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—Margaret Kealey, an Irish girl of 18, arrived in New York two weeks ago and came to Philadelphia. On Wednesday night she died in the farmhouse of Edwin Hunt, near Camden, N. J., after twelve hours of intense agony. The county physician made a cursory examination and gave a burial certificate without naming that the young woman had died of cholera morbus, superinduced by congestion of the brain. Dr. P. W. Banta, the coroner of Camden county, however, was not dictatorial, but he publicly announced that death was due to Asiatic cholera. This conclusion was reached after two days of careful investigation. Dr. Banta is an acknowledged authority on diseases of the bowels, and his assertion has created some little alarm. He bases it on ante and post mortem inquiries.

Shortly after the girl reached here she obtained a situation as a domestic in the Hunt family. When she went there she was apparently in good health. On Wednesday night, while getting supper, she was attacked with violent pains in the epigastric region and fell on the floor. She had eaten nothing for four hours, and then sparingly of meat and potatoes. She was taken to bed and simple remedies of camphor and paregoric were applied without effect. About 11 o'clock she began to vomit a profuse quantity of bile, and her body became rigid and turned purple. Purging followed on a hour later, first thin and watery, and then becoming more solid. The rice-water discharge was noticed by the persons in attendance, but in their ignorance of the malady they attached no importance to it. The pupils of the patient's eyes became dilated, and she sank into a comatose condition from which she was frequently aroused by convulsions of the stomach. This continued until nearly 6 o'clock, when she sank into a stupor and remained in that condition until death took place at 7:15 o'clock from exhaustion.

These facts were learned from the family by Dr. Zeale. He had the body removed to the morgue, where it was examined and found to have sufficient evidence to warrant him in declaring the disease to have been the Asiatic scourge. The corpse began to show signs of decomposition within a few hours after death took place. The house where the girl died was thoroughly fumigated Friday by Dr. Banta's order. A consultation of physicians is to be held.

PANIC ON A LAKE STEAMER.

Her Walking Beam Breaks and the Staff Flies Hither with the Cabin.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 15.—The steamer City of Milwaukee, owned by the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railway, which left Grand Haven Friday morning at 1 o'clock, was towed into port in the afternoon completely disabled. At 4 p. m., when about forty miles from port, her walking beam broke, and the ship followed her. A moment later the greater part of the engine was completely demolished. The large shaft was thrown up with tremendous force and tore up the middle part of the boiler. The engine room was filled with the falling of the boiler, the flooring of which was almost entirely demolished. The wheels of the steamer had to be chained in order to check the motion of it. The then ensuing scene was a truly fearful one. Sixty passengers, around from round about rushed wildly from their cabins to be met outside by Capt. Smallman and his hands, who prevented them from approaching the torn down part of the cabin.

One lady passenger, Mrs. Aswood, from St. Paul, experienced such a fright that her hair turned gray. Life preservers were distributed, but in the meantime the captain had come to the gratifying discovery that the hull of the vessel had remained intact and that no danger from fire was to be feared. Had this occurred, the outcome of the affair would have been a terrible one. At the time a heavy fog was blowing, which tossed the steamer around and added to the horror of the scene. A few hours were passed under these circumstances, when a large steamer came sighted and signaled. The ship was informed that the actual loss sustained by the company will reach $30,000; covered by insurance. The entire machinery has to be replaced. A few months ago the company lost the steamer Michigan which was crushed to the ice.

HOADLY AND CARBERRY.

The Latter Resigns Office and Gives His Reasons Therefor.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 15.—Joseph P. Carberry has tendered his resignation to the governor as a member of the state board of charities. It is said that Mr. Carberry made an explanation of why he resigned, but it certainly goes out of his sphere in defense of the paucity at the State banquet. He was appointed by Hoadly only last spring, and the resignation at this time is a statement that all is not harmonious in the office of the board. Personally and socially Mr. Hoadly is a close friend of mine, as he has been for many years, but his judgment is so clouded in the matter of appointments and his political mismanagement is so glaring that I can not feel justified in retaining a place under him. I still entertain, however, the belief, feeling toward my old friend, Judge Hoadly.

MANFIELD, Ohio, Aug. 15.—At a late hour Friday night the United Press dispatches concerning the resignation of J. P. Carberry as member of the board of state charities, reached here. Governor Hoadly, who is in the city on his way to the Seventeenth regiment encampment. The governor replied as follows:
"I this afternoon, appointed Col. Lyman Jackson, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, as Carberry's successor. The only difference between Col. Carberry and myself is that I am decidedly opposed to a man, O'Neil, for postmaster of Cincinnati."

A Great Train Wrecked.
OTTUMWA, Iowa, Aug. 15.—A disastrous collision occurred near Edgelyville, Iowa, Friday, between two sections of Forepaugh's circus train. The sleeping-car Baltimore was telescoped and wrecked, and the sleepers section, Washington and Detroit, smashed, the last named being thrown from the track. The cars were coupled by circus performers, all of whom were badly shaken up, while eight men were killed. Those who were injured are: Samuel, Frank Boyd, Sid Benson, Louis Huter, Jo. Cope, Frank Holland, Frank Baker and Louis Le Grand. They will be transferred to the hospital at Davenport.

All Quiet at Day City and Saginaw.
EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 15.—All was quiet among the strikers along the river Friday. Some of the mill owners who signified their intention of going to work at the proposition of Thursday started Friday morning. Others agreed to start Monday. Thomas B. Barry, the leaders of the strikers, was arrested on Thursday and taken to Saginaw. He is held on $5,000 bail. This is the fifth arrest of Barry. It is feared the arrest will have a tendency to seriously affect the strike. At the same time, Saginaw City all is quiet and the men are firm.

Something More for Ohio.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 15.—Gen. Luther M. Holt, of Lima, Ohio, has been appointed assistant commissioner general land office, vice L. Harrison resigned. He is a native of Ohio, served in the Union army on Gen. Hancock's staff. At the close of the war he studied, graduated, and afterwards practiced law until 1878, when he was appointed adjutant general of the state under Governor Bishop.

Moving the Cattle.
PORT SCOTT, Kan., Aug. 15.—Two train loads of cattle from Indiana territory, numbering 300 head, passed through this city Friday night en route for Chicago, being the first to make their exit from the territory under the president's order. Two cattle were brought over the St. Louis, Port Scott & Wichita railroad from the ranch of John A. Smith, Cathey, 105 miles west of Anthony, Harper county.

One can't expect to succeed in business or in pleasure either, for that matter, unless one feels all right in health and spirit. This is the first consideration. Now, it is a small matter when this remedy, ZEPPE-S, is recommended so highly even guaranteed to renew one's energy and spirits by invigorating the liver and aiding digestion, by clearing the brain, opening the pores of the skin, regulating the bowels and system, to go to the drug store of PRENTICE & EVENSON, opposite postoffice, and get a single bottle of Zeppe-S as a trial. It is a duty every one owes to himself. Try a 25 cent sample bottle. If you suffer from indigestion, heart burn or sick headache, don't fail to try it. One Dose will relieve you immediately, and one bottle will cure any ordinary case.

—A female may adapt herself to most any calling, but a "female detective," going around the country announcing herself as a detective in search of the Durand and brute, is laughed at, and probably won't succeed in capturing a man who fifty or more hardy men have been chasing for several days. But there was a "female detective" in this city yesterday, giving her name as Jennie Bishop, who lives at Afton. She applied to Marshal North for assistance in the matter, and it did not take long to show that the woman needed rest and care, and after having the matter talked over from him he finally, at the detective's request, drove with her to Janesville, where he left her. She was very desirous of continuing the "hunt" for the fugitive, and wanted to borrow some money for the purpose of defraying the expenses. The officer persuaded her to go home. The lady was probably laboring under a delusion. —Beloit Free Press.

Some of the Janesville officers had a little experience with this same female detective.

—The State board of Pharmacy concluded its session at half-past three o'clock this afternoon. Runzel, Milwaukee. Adam Conrath, Milwaukee and A. H. Hallock, of Madison were appointed delegates from Wisconsin to attend the meeting at Pittsburgh Sept. 7th.

—The Watertown (Dakota) Daily Courier, of August 11th, contains the following:—"The large barn of Hon. C. G. Williams, situated on his farm, six miles south of this city, was struck by lightning this morning and with its contents destroyed. From Mr. George H. Markley, who lives one half mile distance from the Williams farm, we got these particulars: Mr. Markley and family were up watching the storm and saw the bolt when it struck the barn. In a very few minutes the whole roof was in flames. The building was about 60x60 feet and well finished and painted. There were three horses and two mules within, one horse and one mule escaped from it, but they are so badly burned it is expected they will die. The others were burned to death. About sixty tons of hay was also burned. There were two racks of it, one of which they succeeded in saving. The whole loss is estimated to be from $1,500 to $2,000, no insurance. This is the greatest damage to property by lightning which has ever occurred, we think, in this section. Mr. Williams was at Castlewood and Estate yesterday, and at this writing did not know of his loss.

Robbins' Show.

The Barr Robbins show exhibited in Madison yesterday afternoon. Several parties from Janesville were in attendance, and report a very large attendance both afternoon and evening. One gentleman informs us that over three thousand people were in attendance in the evening, and the crowd was very near as large in the afternoon. All were well pleased with the exhibition. The Madison Journal of last evening, in noticing the parade, says:

"The parade of Barr Robbins' circus this forenoon was a very creditable affair and was witnessed by thousands of people from the city and surrounding country. It embraced about two dozen cages, two elephants, two bands, a lot of camels, many horses and ponies and various other features. An alleged to male bear occupied a high divan on the largest elephant, and another lady, perched on the top of a cage, represented the Goddess of Liberty. Through the bars of two of the cages could be seen a man with lions and bears around him—a spectacle which thrilled the child-like spectators scarcely less than the clown in the little chariot amused them. The bands rendered very good music, while a chap with a stentorian voice shouted from the top of a cage the customary announcement about 'the free exhibition at the show grounds immediately after the parade, don't fail to see the high wire acrobats!'"

The parade was made around the park and no doubt fully repaid all the little people who have been awaiting it with such expectations of pleasure these many weeks past.

The circus is in progress on the lake front in the fourth ward this afternoon and a great crowd is in attendance. Another exhibition will be given this evening."

The Madison Democrat adds:—"Yesterday Barr Robbins came with his circus and menagerie. As has been said, the street parade was good. The test performance was good—very good. Every thing was neat and clean. In a word, Robbins' show is worthy of patronage, it is vastly better than many shows with bigger names."

A Desirable Location for a Tobacco Depot.

Ample Fire Protection and Other Advantages Close at Hand.

Should We Have a Warehouse.

The Gazette has not been commissioned to select a location for a tobacco warehouse, or authorized to build one, but at the same time is actively interested in any enterprise that looks to the building up of our city, or in any way adds to its permanent prosperity. We will, therefore, be pardoned for suggesting a desirable location for a tobacco warehouse feeling confident that sooner or later Janesville people will realize the fact that their interest can well be promoted by providing ample room for handling the crop which so materially adds to our revenue.

On Bluff, between Franklin and River is a vacant lot say 40 feet wide by from 80 to 100 feet deep, which is in every way adapted to the wants of a desirable location. This lot is directly opposite the engine room of the cotton factory, and would share all the benefits of protection from the derived from a powerful force pump capable of maintaining four steady streams of water that could be turned on at a moment's notice. If there is any virtue in plenty of water on call, the rates of insurance ought to be correspondingly low. With these desirable surroundings and within easy access of our depots, the location ought to be first class in every respect and worthy of consideration. If the time has come when tobacco must insure itself to any great extent, it is important that not only fire proof buildings be provided, but that the stock be further protected by the best precautionary measures. The location indicated has all the safeguards thrown about it that could be supplied by a system of waterworks and is so near the river that our fire companies would be accessible to the best advantage.

Any man who has traveled over the country within the past two weeks and noted the tonnage of tobacco that will naturally seek our markets, must be impressed with the fact that more and better warehouse room is necessary.

The time to take advantage of the tide is when it ebbs and not after it recedes. It is a city we would reap the benefits that cluster about a well established market something must be done to furnish ample facilities to meet the demands created.

We are not interested in the Bluff street lots and are ignorant as to whom the property belongs, but that it is well adapted to warehouse purposes in part for the reasons named is apparent to a casual observer.

THE GUN.

O. Sutherland carried off the honors at the Bluff Street Shoot.

The shoot on Bunker Hill yesterday afternoon was taken part in by sixteen members and many exceedingly different shots were made. The prizes were, 1st a 40-60 Winchester repeater, $30; 2d, $5 in money; 3d, $5; 4th, $2. The birds were the regular Feoria blackbirds thrown at random from two traps, eight yards distant. Each man shot at thirty-five birds the largest number broken being thirty, by Sutherland. The score stood:

Stannard, 30; Sutherland, 29; Bingham, 28; Botsford, 27; Markley, 26; Botsford, 25; Bingham, 24; Botsford, 23; Bingham, 22; Botsford, 21; Bingham, 20; Botsford, 19; Bingham, 18; Botsford, 17; Bingham, 16; Botsford, 15; Bingham, 14; Botsford, 13; Bingham, 12; Botsford, 11; Bingham, 10; Botsford, 9; Bingham, 8; Botsford, 7; Bingham, 6; Botsford, 5; Bingham, 4; Botsford, 3; Bingham, 2; Botsford, 1.

This gave 1st place to Sutherland, 2d to St. John, 3d to Fenner and 4th to the between Stannard, Valentine, Sherer, Bingham and Goldrey. This tie was shot off, as each man having four pairs of birds, double rise. After the first few shots all drew out except Ed. Bingham and Stannard. The match was won by the latter, he breaking 7 out of the 8, while Ed. missed two. The rifle which was shot for is a beauty and with its fine walnut stock is an ornament as well as an accurate and reliable weapon. These shots are attracting much attention in this part of the state and it is probable that next time the local sports men will have even a closer struggle than they have had.

Musical.

Mr. Warren S. Young, who is in the city the guest of his nephew, Dr. W. H. Judd, has kindly consented to assist in the song service at Court Street M. E. church to-morrow evening.

Mr. Young enjoys the reputation of being one of the finest baritone singers in Washington, D. C., where he resides. For the past four years he has filled the position of presenter at the Assembly Presbyterian church at the national capital.

The Baptist Church.

After many months of patient work and waiting the Baptist society have completed their beautiful house of worship, and the auditorium will be thrown open to the public in a dedicatory service to-morrow morning. The Rev. Dr. Anderson, of Chicago, occupying the pulpit.

The Baptist people are to be congratulated on having come through the fire and out upon the active field of church work again with a society strong in faith and earnest in christian endeavor. The rebuilt church edifice is an ornament to the city, being modern in design and architectural beauty. Clustering about it and interwoven into its structure are the hopes and sacrifices which speak clearly of the loyalty which prompts as a motive power the earnest faithful work that has been necessary. The pleasant room will be crowded to-morrow with friends who appreciate the climax and will take occasion to rejoice with the society in their new church home.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 55 degrees above zero. Clear with north wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 85 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago, the register was 64 and 92 degrees above zero.
